

How to Print an Email Attachment

For the Gmail app on iPhone - HP DeskJet 2700

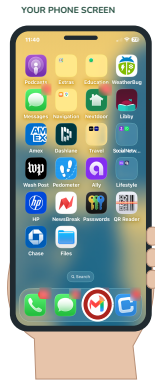

1 Tap Gmail once.

Step 1 of 10

Find the colorful M on your Home Screen. Tap it once.

Next: Your email list opens.

LOOK CLOSER

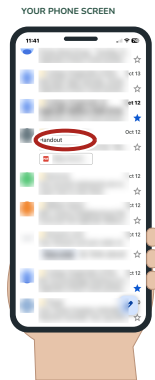

2 Tap the email once.

Step 2 of 10

Find the email with your file. This example is called Handout.

Next: The email message opens.

LOOK CLOSER

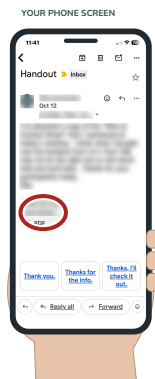

3 Tap the file box once.

Step 3 of 10

A file sent with an email. This example has a red PDF symbol.

Next: The attachment opens.

LOOK CLOSER

How to Print an Email Attachment

For the Gmail app on iPhone - HP DeskJet 2700

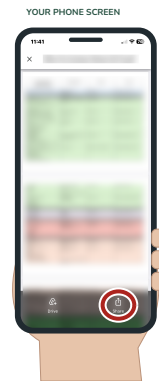

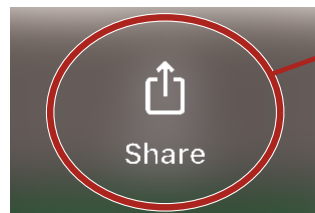

4 Tap Share once.

Step 4 of 10

Look at the bottom.
Use the box with an arrow pointing up.

Next: The sharing menu opens.

LOOK CLOSER

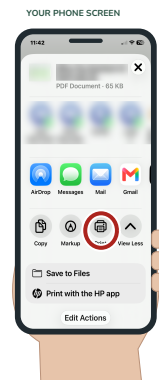

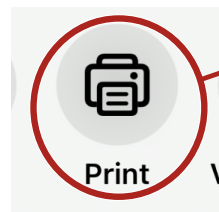

5 Tap Print once.

Step 5 of 10

Choose the printer
picture labeled Print.

Next: The Options screen opens.

LOOK CLOSER

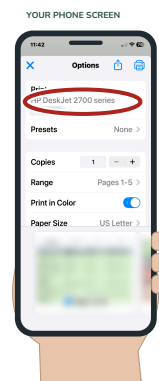

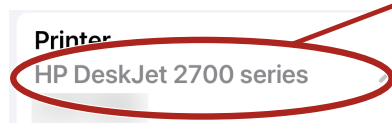

6 Check the printer.

Step 6 of 10

Look for your
HP DeskJet 2700.
Wrong printer? Call us.

Next: Your printer name is shown.

LOOK CLOSER

How to Print an Email Attachment

For the Gmail app on iPhone - HP DeskJet 2700

7 Check Copies.

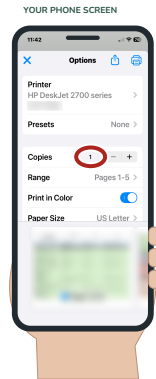

Step 7 of 10

Copies should show 1
for one set of the file.
If not, ask for help.

Next: Copies shows 1.

LOOK CLOSER

Copies 1 - +

8 Check the pages.

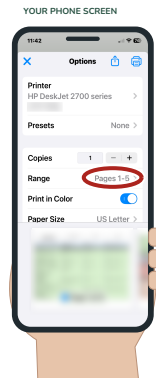

Step 8 of 10

Range shows pages.
1-5 means all five here.
Your count may differ.

Next: Your chosen pages are shown.

LOOK CLOSER

Range Pages 1-5 >

9 Turn color off.

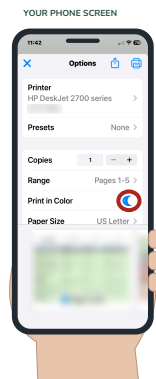

Step 9 of 10

Optional: for black and white, tap blue.
For color, skip this.

Next: The switch turns gray.

LOOK CLOSER

Print in Color

How to Print an Email Attachment

For the Gmail app on iPhone - HP DeskJet 2700

10 Tap Print once.

Step 10 of 10

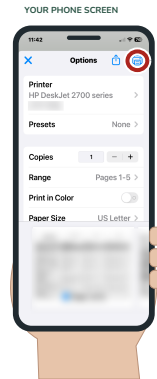

Use the blue printer
at the top right.
Tap only once.

Next: Allow time for printing.

LOOK CLOSER

10

Before you start

Turn on the printer and check its paper and ink.
Use the same Wi-Fi for your iPhone and printer.

If something is different

Pause and call CyberGuardia for help.
Give the printer time. Avoid tapping Print again.

This guide prints a file attached to an email.
Other file types may need different steps.

Call (301) 300-1716

Sources: Apple AirPrint - October 15, 2026